

Listservs

Updated June 2019

- RSP All Sexual Assault Coalition Listserv
 - A listserv for all staff working at state or territorial sexual assault coalitions to share resources and information, ask questions, and offer peer support. Contact Norio Umezu Hall at norio@iowacasa.org or your regional TA provider to be added to the list

- RSP Executive Direct Listserv
 - A listserv for executive directors at state and territorial sexual assault coalitions to discuss issues related to managing a sexual assault coalition in a confidential space. Contact norio@iowacasa.org or your regional TA provider to be added to the list.

- RSP Communities of Color Listserv
 - A listserv for people of color who are staff at state or territorial sexual assault coalition. This list is a safe space to share best practices, ask critical questions, and have conversations and talk about access points for leadership development opportunities for people of color, particularly women of color, in our movement. Contact Tracy Wright at tracy@nccasa.org to request to be on the list.

- RSP Coalition Communications Listserv
 - A listserv for any staff working at state or territorial sexual assault coalitions in a Communications or Media role. This list is a space to share resources, ask questions, and receive support. The coalition communications group also hosts a monthly phone meeting. Contact

Norio Umezu Hall at norio@iowacasa.org or Marissa Marzano at mmarzano@njcasa.org to be added to the list.

- NAESV Policy Listserv

- The National Alliance to End Sexual Violence (NAESV) listserv is a forum for all staff at sexual assault coalitions to conduct discussions on policy issues including public policy & legislation, internal agency policies, and pressing current issues. Contact Terri Poore at terri@endsexualviolence.org to be added to the list.

- SA Policy Watch

- The Sexual Assault Policy Watch is a discussion group for professionals and other communities interested in staying informed about current national sexual assault policy. This listserv is a project of the National Alliance to End Sexual Violence and requires approval to join. If you would like to join this group you must include a sentence regarding why you are interested in membership with your request to join. Requests to join that do not include this sentence will be denied. Sign up on their website at <https://www.endsexualviolence.org/where-we-stand/how-you-can-effect-change/>.

- Newsletters from your fellow coalitions

- The best information you can get is often from your fellow coalitions. Most have a signup link on their websites. For a list of all sexual assault coalition websites, visit www.resourcesharingproject.org/technical-assistance-coalitions and look for the coalition contacts menu.

- Tech Advocates

- This listserv is for sexual assault and domestic violence coalition staff, and local programs, whose work relates to technology. This list will provide staff working in these capacities space to discuss useful technologies/resources and concerns related to privacy, confidentiality, and technology. Email safetynet@nedv.org to be added.

- NSVRC SART Listserv

- Hosted by the National Sexual Violence Resource Center (NSVRC), the SART listserv promotes ongoing dialogue and information sharing among community and professional organizations/agencies that respond to sexual violence. The SART Listserv supports the safety, justice and autonomy of all victims and survivors of sexual violence; works to meet the needs of underserved/marginalized service providers in the development of SARTs; and creates a forum to enhance the response to systems advocacy and sexual violence prevention initiatives among sexual assault response teams. Go to <https://www.nsvrc.org/sarts> to subscribe.

- Prevent Connect

- The PreventConnect email group is a moderated list to discuss issues related to the prevention of violence against women. Hundreds of people interested in prevention programs participate in this group. This listserv is run by the California Coalition Against Sexual Assault. Join by following this link:
<https://groups.yahoo.com/neo/groups/prevent-connect/info>

- International Association of Forensic Nurses

- Forensic Nurses News is a weekly roundup of articles of interest to those who practice forensic nursing. To sign up, go to www.forensicnurses.org and click the “Subscribe” button at the bottom of the home page.

- No More Newsletters

- E-newsletters about opportunities, news, and announcements to do with the NO MORE campaign. Sign up at <https://nomore.org/take-action/stayinformed/>.
- National Immigrant Women's Advocacy Project
 - This newsletter will provide you with up to date information about legal protections, policy changes, and other developments as they pertain to immigrant women, children and immigrant victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, human trafficking, child abuse, elder abuse, stalking and other crimes. This newsletter will also provide information on what is happening at NIWAP: events they're hosting, training materials we're publishing, research they are undertaking, reports we are issuing and more. Throughout this and future newsletters subscribers will find links to: statutes, government policies and regulations, legislative history, training manuals, materials, toolkits, and other relevant information to better assist you in your work. To join, sign up on their website, <https://site.niwap.org/>.

Newsletters

In addition to joining listservs, sexual assault coalition staff may find the following free non-profit management-related newsletters of interest:

- Non-Profit Quarterly (NPQ) Daily Digest
 - The NPQ Daily Digest newsletter features free articles from their monthly magazine on trends in non-profit management, funding, and oversight. To sign up for the newsletter, visit <https://nonprofitquarterly.org/>.

- Management Center
 - The Management Center offers a twice monthly newsletter that highlights specific nonprofit management tools and tips. To sign up, visit www.managementcenter.org and enter your email address into the “sign up for free tips” field at the top of the page.